

VTA Master Classes - What previous attendees have said:

Leadership Skills

- The training was well delivered by a guy who knows what he is talking about; was able to lead us through it well.”
- Most value: “Defining the difference between managing and leading.”
- Most value: “Designing leadership plan.”
- Most value: “Tools that are available to self-critique and evaluate.”
- Most value was: “Tools and methods.”
- Most value: “Learning about Force Field Analysis, actually sitting down and thinking about decision making.”
- “The casual environment was good. Felt comfortable in asking questions.”
- Most value: “Problem solving tools – how to pull apart problems.”
- Most value: “All important information, eye opening.”
- Most value: “The value of further education in regard to understanding and being able to implement the tools introduced.”
- Most value: “The tools that enable you to quantify areas.”
- “Well done.”
- Most value: “Learning ways to become a better leader and leadership tools.”
- Most value: “Tools that can be used to develop leadership skills.”

For more information contact Barry Jenner bjenner@mindshop.com.au;
www.msaconsulting.com.au; 0418821183